GENERAL SHOW RULES:

All animals are to be fed, fitted, entered and shown by the exhibitor. Family members and other junior exhibitors are allowed to help.

Exhibitors must show their own animals. In case of an emergency, another junior exhibitor may show said animals upon prior consent of the species chairman.

Registration papers must be in the name of the exhibitor or in his/her parents or farm name. To be eligible for Bred and Owned competition, the breeder and the owner of the animal must be in the exhibitors name only. Any animal entered in a WLBA Livestock Show must be shown by the same exhibitor for the current show season.

An exhibitor may enter animals in any two species. There will be no re-weighing for market animals.

Materials may not be used to change the color of an animal. If natural color is altered the animal will be disqualified. There will be no painting on sheep to either alter or enhance color.

No medicines can be given to an animal at the show without a vets or species chairman's approval. Blood or urine tests may be taken if a complaint is filed regarding irregular use of drugs. If the tests are positive, the exhibitor will incur any costs for testing and will be banned from future WLBA shows.

Any animal that has been altered through surgical procedures will be disqualified and the exhibitor's status at future shows will be determined by the show committee.

There will be no smoking in the barns, use of controlled substances, or alcohol on the grounds by either exhibitors or adults.

Interpretation of any rule infraction rests with the show committee which has the authority to bar an exhibitor from exhibiting at this show or other WLBA shows. The Executive Director will serve in an advisory position on any rule infraction.

All pens, stalls, and fitting areas must be cleaned thoroughly before exhibitors leave. A clean-up charge will be assessed to all violators.

SHOWMANSHIP: Showmanship age break downs as of January 1, 2010:
8-9, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15, 16-19

BEEF RULES:

Exhibitor may show up to 5 heifers and 3 steers. Heifers must be born after September 1, 2008. Steers must be born after January 1, 2009. Heifers must be purchased by May 1, 2010. Heifers without papers, Crossbred heifers, or lower percentage heifers will be shown as a Commercial breed. An exhibitor may exhibit one managerial heifer upon filing appropriate paperwork. Purebred heifers must be 75% or more purebred and must carry an ear tattoo corresponding to the registration papers. Heifers will be shown by breed with classes determined after all heifers have been checked in. Exhibitors may also enter cow/calf pairs. Steers must carry a state or county fair tag. Steers will be shown by breed and weight. Purebred Angus and Hereford steers need registration papers in the exhibitor's name. If there are less than 5 steers in one breed, that breed will show in Any Other Breeds. No dairy steers will be shown. In case of a question on a steer's breed purity, the steer will be blood tested at the expense of the person questioning the purity. The testing expenses will be refunded if the complaint is proven correct. No steers with horns longer than 1" from the hair line will show. Loosely attached scurs are permitted to show.

No butt fans allowed.

SWINE RULES:

Barrows and gilts are eligible for entry. There will be only a prospect pig division. There are no minimum numbers or pre-identification requirements. Pigs will be shown by weight, in either the Purebred or Crossbred Divisions. Registration papers are required for the Purebred Division. All pigs need on the farm veterinary inspection papers. Maximum weight for pigs is 220#.

SHEEP RULES:

Exhibitors may show 4 ewes, 3 rams, 3 market lambs, and 2 feeder lambs of each breed they are showing. Crossbred lambs are considered a breed. Exhibitors must provide registration papers on breeding sheep. All sheep must carry an ear tag corresponding to registration papers. Ewes without proper papers and crossbred ewes will show as a commercial and/or wether type ewe. Rams without proper papers will not show. Ewes, rams, and lambs must be purchased by June 1, 2010. Exhibitors are allowed to enter one animal in each class of breeding sheep.

Ewe & Ram Classes: Yearling Ewe/Rams must be born after September 1, 2008. Winter lambs: born between Jan 1-Feb 15, 2010. Spring lambs: born on or after February 16, 2010. Fall lambs: born between Sept 1-Dec 31, 2009.

Sheep showing symptoms of any contagious disease will not be permitted to show. All female and sexually intact males need scrapie tags. No drenching and muzzles are allowed. Infractions will result in disqualification.

Two exhibitors are allowed to show breeding sheep, exhibitor must be on head.

Sheep pens are assigned. Check with the species chairman before unloading.

Market Lamb Classes: Lambs must be born after January 1, 2010. Lambs will be shown by breed and weight. If there are less than 5 lambs in one breed, that breed will show as Any Other Breeds. No patch shearing will be allowed on lambs. Lambs must not have more than one-half inch of wool. No tubes or blankets allowed on lambs during weigh-in. There will be market and prospect divisions. Divisions will be split at 100#. Lambs will be allowed over the scale one time. Weight and breed determination is final.

Lead Class: Open to all exhibitors. Ewes or wethers may be used in this class. A Lead Class animal must be owned by the immediate family. Entrants shall wear attire made of wool fabrics. The class shall be judged on percentages as follows; 40% on exhibitor attire, 30% on presentation of sheep-showmanship, 30% on personality and knowledge of project of exhibitor during interview. Entrants shall provide the sheep chairman with a lead class entry form by no later than check-in.

MASTER STOCKMAN APPLICATIONS: Two applicants per species will be chosen to advance to the state competition in March of 2011. Master Stockman winners in each species will receive $750 and Runner Ups will receive $500. Master Stockman applicants or their immediate families must be paid 2010 WLBA members. Master Stockman applicants must have shown at a WLBA show for the past three years and must be exhibiting at the show where the application is submitted.

DEADLINES: Entry deadline and fees will be strictly enforced. Exhibitors who submit entries that are not postmarked by May 1, 2010 will be assessed a double entry fee that must be paid prior to the show or the exhibitor will be ineligible to show. No entries will be accepted after a June 1st postmark date. Absolutely no day of show entries will be accepted-No exceptions.
